

TUCSON POLICE FOUNDATION, INC.

Fostering partnerships between law enforcement & the community to make Tucson a safer, more secure, and inviting place to live

The Tucson Police Foundation (TPF) is a publicly-supported, charitable organization dedicated to fostering public safety through community building, education, and outreach.

Established in 2003, the foundation, in concert with the Tucson Police Department, works with a range of community advocates to support, develop, and implement public safety and crime prevention programs.

While the city budget provides the necessary resources to fund the operations of the Tucson Police Department, a number of important community programs have been threatened or cut back due to lack of funding. The foundation was created as a catalyst in responding to this threat so these beneficial programs would be funded.

The Tucson Police Foundation is the only organization sanctioned by the Tucson Police Department to raise funds for its benefit and does not solicit by using telemarketers.

The Tucson Police Foundation is a 501(c)3 charitable organization. The tax ID # is 20-0559408
